ADMINISTRATIVE:

(Laura Ingalls) 661-1289

Officer's Thank you

OLD BUSINESS:

The Freedom Run was successful. There were 17 riders, and 17 poker hands. No one won the Dead Man's Hand. $75 was awarded to the high hand, and $25 was awarded to the low hand. A good time was had by all in attendance. Thank you FARTS for your participation, and everyone else who helped make a successful ride

The Spring Opener was attended by 339 including the 16 vendors. The raffle and auction were successful. A good time was had by all in attendance.

Anyone interested in adding something to the T-shirts bring your suggestions to the next meeting.

NEW BUSINESS:

It was suggested by Laura Ingalls that we move the nominations to September, and elections to October. Then the out going officers would have a couple of months to mentor the newly elected officer. There was a question as to whether the By-Laws would need to be amended to reflect this change.

COORDINATOR REPORT: (Belinda Carson) Spring Opener was a success. Now will focus on Toy Run.

LEGISLATIVE: (Dave Cazel) Not present

AMBASSADOR AT LARGE: (Duane Justus) Talked with Seth and Chris Cody. They want vendors only on Saturday. The swap meet will be in March.

SAFETY, EDUCATION, & AWARENESS: (Karen Stewart)

CORRESPONDENCE: None.
